NARCOTICS INVESTIGATION

At the conclusion of a narcotics investigation and execution of a search warrant, police arrested five individuals for narcotics, weapons, and child endangerment offenses.

On March 5, 2005, at approximately 7:14 pm, officers assigned to the Division's Special Investigations Unit executed a search warrant for a home located in the 1700 block of Newton Road. When officers entered the residence, a canine made aggressive advances to the entry team. The canine attacked an officer, a five-year veteran of the Division, and he discharged his weapon striking the animal. The officer received treatment at a local hospital for bites to his leg. No one occupying the residence was injured as a result of the gunfire.

At the conclusion of the search, investigators seized ½-ounce cocaine, 2.3 ounces of marijuana, $450.00 U.S. currency, a shotgun, and two semi automatic pistols. Police charged Corrdiro Marcel Vinson with possession of cocaine with the intent to distribute and possession of marijuana with intent to distribute. Tracey Donte Hill was charged with possession of cocaine with the intent to distribute, possession of marijuana, and possession of a firearm while in possession of a controlled substance. Jacqueline Denise Hill was charged with possession of cocaine and possession of a firearm while in possession of a controlled substance. Lovely Deon Hill was charged with child endangerment. Officers arrested and served Markus Antonio Wilkins with an outstanding arrest warrant for possession of cocaine.
